The Veteran

We came from every walk of life,
from the city to country land,
We came because of the trouble out there,
to lend a helping hand.
We came as Soldiers, Sailors and Marines,
the services we did spend,
We came to stop the enemy hordes, for freedom we do stand.

We fought them in the deserts; we fought them in the seas,
We fought them in the jungles; we fought them on our knees.
We fought them as our enemy; we fought for victory,
We fought them anywhere they were; we fought to make men free.

The battles were very costly; friends were lost along the way,
Our courage was not shaken; our bravery was on display.
We fought as hard as we could, the fighting we did not delay,
We knew we had to win this war, to have that victory day.

Our loved ones we left behind, to be there all alone,
It's hard to leave them all behind, to be there on their own.
We know we have a duty to do, to return it is not known,
To do the job we signed up for, to them it must be shown.

Our battles are not always over, in our minds they do play on,
Our dreams turn in to nightmares, from Korea to Teheran.
The scars are not always visible, when we are looked upon
But, our hearts are strong as ever, as warriors our lives go on.

We don't ask for recognition, for a medal or even award,
We look for peace upon the land, to be on one accord.
The price we paid was very high, too steep for one to afford,
A land for everyone to be free, to us is our reward.
